North Point Alliance Church

Dear member of NPAC,

Peace be with you!

“North Point Alliance Church” (“NPAC”), originally a subsidiary under the Christian & Missionary Alliance Church Union Hong Kong Limited, has been successfully incorporated on October 5, 2022 as the “C&MA North Point Alliance Church Limited” (“Church Company”) and its tax exemption status as a charitable institution under section 88 of the Inland Revenue Ordinance has been approved.

According to the requirement of Article 21a of the Articles of Association of the “Church Company,” all existing members (admitted as members through baptism or transfer of membership) on the register of the members of former NPAC can fill in the below application form and become the congregation members of the Church Company upon the approval by the Church Company. Please put a ✓ in the  to indicate your choice. (Remark: Anyone who becomes a congregation member of the Church Company will not be required to bear any legal liabilities of the Church Company.)

Membership Application Form

I, _____ (Chinese Name, if any) _____ (English Name in Block Letters),

apply for membership of congregation members of the “C&MA North Point Alliance Church Limited,” and agree to observe the doctrine of faith and duties of congregation members prescribed in the Articles of Association. (Remark: The related content is similar to the former “North Point Alliance Church Constitution.”) will not apply for membership at this stage to become a congregation member of the “C&MA North Point Alliance Church Limited.” I understand that this choice of intent means that I am not eligible to take part in the deacon’s election of the Church Company, which includes losing the right to be nominated or to vote in the election. In case I will apply for membership to be a congregation member of the Church Company in the future, I will be required to fill in the application form and obtain approval by the Church Company.
